

ODIN MASTER SERVICES AGREEMENT

This Agreement was last updated on April 2, 2026.

This ODin Master Services Agreement (together with all exhibits, attachments, etc. the “Agreement”) governs Customer’s (as defined herein) acquisition and use of the Services (as defined herein) provided by the Mozilla entity identified herein (“Mozilla”). Capitalized terms have the definitions set forth herein. Mozilla and Customer may be referred to as “party” or “parties” hereunder.

Any individual accepting this Agreement on behalf of a company or other legal entity represents that they have the authority to bind such entity and its Affiliates (as defined herein) to this Agreement. Mozilla’s direct competitors are prohibited from accessing the Services, except with Mozilla’s prior written consent.

This Agreement is effective between Customer and Mozilla as of the date of Customer’s accepting this Agreement (the “Effective Date”). By accepting this Agreement, by (1) clicking to accept, (2) entering into ordering documentation that references this Agreement, or (3) using the Services, Customer agrees to the terms of this Agreement.

“SOW” means an order form, statement of work, or other ordering documentation entered into between the parties, including paper and/or electronic ordering documentation and/or online ordering portals and/or websites. 2. MOZILLA’S PROVISION OF THE SERVICES

2.1. Provision of Services. Mozilla will make the Services available to Customer in accordance with this Agreement, the applicable Documentation, the applicable SOW(s), and laws and government regulations applicable to Mozilla’s provision of its Services to its customers generally (i.e., without regard for Customer’s particular use of the Services), and subject to Customer’s and Users’ use of the Services in accordance with this Agreement, the Documentation, the applicable SOW(s), and laws and government regulations applicable to Customer’s use of the Services. Mozilla’s Affiliates may perform certain obligations or provide certain Services on Mozilla's behalf and Mozilla may utilize contractors as applicable to provide the Services; Mozilla remains responsible for the acts and omissions of its Affiliates and contractors in connection with this Agreement unless otherwise provided herein.

2.2. Customer Data. Mozilla will maintain appropriate administrative, physical, and technical safeguards for protection of the security, confidentiality and integrity of Customer Data as described in the Documentation. Those safeguards will include, but will not be limited to, measures designed to prevent unauthorized access to or disclosure of Customer Data (other than by Customer or Users). To the extent any personal information is included in the Customer Data submitted to a Service labeled as a part of the ODIN offering, Mozilla will process such information as set forth in the ODIN Privacy Notice at <https://0din.ai/privacy> as updated from time to time.

3. FREE TRIAL AND BETA SERVICES.

3.1. Evaluation Services. From time to time, Mozilla may offer to make certain Services available to Customer on a limited, trial, pilot, or design partner basis, and/or at a reduced cost or no cost ("Evaluation Services"), to allow Customer to evaluate such Evaluation Services and Customer may choose whether or not to accept such Evaluation Services offer. Evaluation Services may or may not be pre-release (i.e. not generally available). Additional terms may apply to Evaluation Services, and if applicable will be incorporated by reference into this Agreement.

3.2. DISCLAIMER. EVALUATION SERVICES ARE PROVIDED FOR EVALUATION PURPOSES ONLY, "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE", AND WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY OF ANY KIND INCLUDING WARRANTIES THAT THE EVALUATION SERVICES WILL MEET CUSTOMER'S REQUIREMENTS, BE UNINTERRUPTED, TIMELY, SECURE OR FREE FROM ERROR, OR ANY OTHER REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES SET OUT IN THIS AGREEMENT. ACCESS TO EVALUATION SERVICES MAY BE SUSPENDED, TERMINATED, OR DISCONTINUED AT ANY TIME AND FOR ANY REASON OR NO REASON. ANY CONFIGURATIONS OR DATA ENTERED INTO AN EVALUATION SERVICE, AND ANY CUSTOMIZATIONS MADE THERETO BY CUSTOMER, MAY BE PERMANENTLY LOST WHEN THE EVALUATION SERVICE EXPIRES OR IF IT IS SUSPENDED, TERMINATED, OR DISCONTINUED. EVALUATION SERVICES THAT ARE IN PRE-RELEASE AND NOT YET GENERALLY AVAILABLE MAY OR MAY NOT EVER BE MADE GENERALLY AVAILABLE. MOZILLA DISCLAIMS ALL OBLIGATION AND LIABILITY (UNLESS SUCH LIABILITY DISCLAIMER IS UNENFORCEABLE UNDER APPLICABLE LAW IN WHICH CASE MOZILLA'S LIABILITY FROM THE EVALUATION SERVICES SHALL NOT EXCEED $1,000.00 USD) UNDER THE AGREEMENT INCLUDING UNDER THE "LIMITATION OF LIABILITY" SECTION AND "MUTUAL INDEMNIFICATION" SECTION FOR ANY HARM OR DAMAGE ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH EVALUATION SERVICES, INCLUDING ANY OBLIGATION OR LIABILITY WITH RESPECT TO CUSTOMER DATA AND ANY DISRUPTION TO CUSTOMER OR THIRD PARTY SERVICES CONFIGURED TO WORK WITH THE EVALUATION SERVICES. CUSTOMER SHALL BE FULLY LIABLE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT TO MOZILLA FOR ANY DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF CUSTOMER'S USE OF EVALUATION SERVICES. ANY BREACH BY CUSTOMER OF THIS AGREEMENT AND ANY OF CUSTOMER'S INDEMNIFICATION OBLIGATIONS HEREUNDER.

4. NON MOZILLA OFFERINGS (NMOs)

4.1. NMOs. Customer's use of any NMO, and any exchange of data between Customer and any NMO provider, product or service, is solely between Customer and the applicable NMO provider. Mozilla makes no representations or warranties regarding, and does not support, NMOs whether or not they are designated by Mozilla as "certified" or otherwise, unless expressly stated otherwise in a SOW. Mozilla is not responsible for any disclosure, modification or deletion of Customer Data resulting from access by such NMO or its provider.

4.2. Integration with NMOs. The Services may contain features designed to interoperate with NMOs. As NMOs are provided by parties other than Mozilla, Mozilla cannot guarantee the continued availability of such features or interoperation and may cease providing them without entitling Customer to any refund, credit, or other compensation, if for example and without limitation, the provider of a NMO ceases to make it available for interoperation with applicable Service in a manner acceptable to Mozilla.

5. CUSTOMER USE OF SERVICES.

5.1. Use of Services. During the term of each SOW, Customer may access and use the Services described in such SOW pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and the SOW. Customer will comply with usage limits set out in the applicable SOW; excess usage may result in additional fees, provided Mozilla will use good faith efforts to discuss any excess usage with Customer before any additional fees apply.

5.2. Usage Restrictions. Customer will not, and will not engage or enable any third party to: (a) make available any Service, or any materials obtained through any Service, to anyone other than Customer or Users, or use any Service for the benefit of anyone other than Customer or its Affiliates, unless expressly stated otherwise in a SOW, (b) sell, resell, license, sublicense, distribute, rent or lease any Service or include any Service in a service bureau or outsourcing offering, (c) use a Service or NMO to store or transmit infringing, libelous, or otherwise unlawful or tortious material, or to store or transmit material in violation of third-party privacy rights, or use a Service together with materials (including assets or AI models) that Customer neither owns nor has explicit permission to use with the Service, (d) use a Service or NMO to store or transmit malicious code, (e) interfere with or disrupt the integrity or performance of any Service or third-party data contained therein, (f) attempt to gain unauthorized access to any Service or its related systems or networks, (g) permit direct or indirect access to or use of any Services in a way that circumvents a contractual usage limit, or use any Services to access, copy or use any of Mozilla intellectual property except as permitted under this Agreement, a SOW, or the Documentation, (h) modify, copy, or create derivative works of a Service or any part, feature, function or user interface thereof, (i) frame or mirror any part of any Service other than framing on Customer's own intranets or otherwise for its own internal business purposes, (j) engage in web scraping or data scraping on or related to the Services, or (k) except to the extent permitted by applicable law, disassemble, reverse engineer, or decompile a Service or access it to (1) build a competitive product or service, (2) build a product or service using similar ideas, features, functions or graphics of the Service, (3) copy any ideas, features, functions or graphics of the Service, (4) determine whether the Services are within the scope of any patent, or (5) monitor its availability, performance or functionality, or for any other benchmarking or competitive purposes.

5.3. Customer Responsibilities. Customer will (a) be responsible for Users' (and Affiliates' if applicable) compliance with this Agreement, Documentation and SOWs, (b) be responsible for the accuracy, quality, completeness, and legality of Customer Data (including any assets or AI models submitted by Customer to any Services as well as configuration data including targets, endpoints, and credentials), the means by which Customer acquired Customer Data (including providing notice and obtaining consent as required by applicable law permitting processing of Customer Data by Mozilla to provide the Services), Customer's use of Customer Data with the Services, and the interoperation of any NMOs with which Customer uses the Services, (c) use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent unauthorized access to or use of Services (including by safeguarding its own user accounts, API tokens, access credentials, and network security controls, and ensuring that only authorized personnel access the Services) and notify Mozilla promptly of any such unauthorized access or use, (d) use the Services only in accordance with this Agreement, Documentation, SOWs and applicable laws and government regulations, and (e) comply with the terms of service of any NMO with which Customer uses the Services. Any use of the Services in breach of the foregoing by Customer or Users that in Mozilla's judgment threatens the security, integrity or availability of Services may result in suspension of Customer's access to the Services, provided Mozilla will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide notice and an opportunity to remedy prior to any such suspension.

5.4. Customer Best Practices. Customer agrees that to ensure the best performance of the Service, Customer must comply with these best practices, failure to do so may result in degradation of the Service received, and Mozilla shall not be responsible for any such degradation: (a) for any on-prem or Customer managed Services, Customer must provide and maintain an adequate host environment (container runtime, compute, storage, and network connectivity) for the Services, including mounting persistent storage and applying Mozilla-supplied updates (e.g. patches and data updates) within a reasonable time; (b) for any SaaS subscription Services, Customer must maintain reliable internet access to reach the Services, including any dashboards and APIs as applicable; (c) for any professional services Services, Customer will make required personnel available, supply requested materials, and participate in scheduled training or integration sessions to enable Mozilla to deliver the agreed outcomes.

5.5. Customer Data Submitted to the Services: For any Services that are SaaS subscriptions or professional services, Customer must not submit any Customer Data that contains personal health information or credit card information; Customer agrees and acknowledges that with respect to Services that are SaaS subscriptions and professional services such Services are neither HIPAA compliant nor PCI DSS compliant. For any Services that are on-prem or Customer managed software or licenses, Customer should determine what data to utilize with the Services based on the certifications and protections Customer has for Customer's systems; Customer must comply with applicable law in its use of all Services.

5.6. Affiliates. Customer may order Services for use by its Affiliates, and Affiliates of Customer and of Mozilla may enter into SOWs in order for such Customer Affiliate to order Services hereunder directly. In either case, the licenses granted to Customer under this Agreement will apply to such Affiliates, provided that (a) by entering into a SOW hereunder, a Customer Affiliate agrees comply with the terms of this Agreement as if it were Customer hereunder, (b) Customer, and not its Affiliates, will have the sole right to enforce this Agreement against Mozilla, and (c) Customer will remain responsible for all obligations under this Agreement and for its Affiliates' compliance with this Agreement.

5.7. Removal of NMOs. If Mozilla notifies Customer that an NMO may no longer be used with the Service, Customer will promptly cease use of the NMO with the Service, and will remove or disable such NMO as directed and provide written confirmation if so requested. Mozilla may provide a copy of such written confirmation to applicable authorities as needed. If Customer fails to do so, Mozilla may disable the NMO, without any notice or any further obligations to Customer.

6. FEES AND PAYMENTS.

6.1. Fees, Invoicing, and Payment. Mozilla will charge, and Customer will pay, the amounts specified in each SOW, including reimbursement for reasonable expenses if set out in a SOW. Except as otherwise specified (a) fees are based on Services purchased and not actual usage, (b) payment obligations are non-cancelable and fees paid are non-refundable, and (c) quantities purchased cannot be decreased during the relevant SOW term. Mozilla will invoice Customer in advance and otherwise in accordance with the relevant SOW. Unless otherwise stated in the SOW, invoiced fees are due net 30 days from the invoice date and all payments will be made in US dollars. Customer is responsible for providing complete and accurate billing and contact information to Mozilla and notifying Mozilla of any changes to such information.

6.2. Overdue Charges. If any invoiced amount (not subject to a good faith dispute which Customer is diligently working to resolve) is not received by Mozilla by the due date, then without limiting any of Mozilla's rights or remedies, (a) those charges may accrue late interest at the rate of 1.5% of the outstanding balance per month, or the maximum rate permitted by law, whichever is lower, (b) for amounts 30 or more days past due, after at least 10 days prior written notice Mozilla may suspend Services until such amounts are paid in full, and/or condition future purchases on shorter payment terms, and (c) for amounts 60 or more days past due Customer shall be liable for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Mozilla in collecting such overdue amounts, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs, and fees charged by any collection agency.

6.3. Taxes. Each party is solely responsible for taxes assessable against it based on its income, property and employees. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Customer is responsible for paying all Tax associated with its purchases hereunder. Amounts set out in SOWs do not include Tax, however if Mozilla has the legal obligation to pay or collect Tax for which Customer is responsible under this Section, Mozilla will invoice Customer and Customer will pay that amount unless Customer provides Mozilla with a valid Tax exemption certificate authorized by the appropriate taxing authority. If applicable, Customer will provide Mozilla promptly on demand with its VAT, GST, or other equivalent Tax registration number and such other information as Mozilla reasonably requires to issue a valid VAT, GST, or other equivalent Tax invoice. In the event that Customer does not provide the information required by law, Mozilla reserves the right to charge Tax to Customer. If Customer is established and registered for VAT, GST, or equivalent Tax in an applicable jurisdiction, purchases hereunder may be subject to Tax under reverse charge mechanisms, and Customer will report its reverse charge liability to the applicable Tax authorities. In the event the Tax registration of Customer is cancelled or for other reasons the reverse charge mechanism no longer applies, and Mozilla is obliged to invoice plus Tax to Customer, then Customer agrees to pay this Tax, in addition to the fees set out in the applicable SOW such that Mozilla will receive the amount originally set out in the SOW, and Mozilla will issue a valid Tax invoice.

7. PROPRIETARY RIGHTS.

7.1. Ownership of the Services. Mozilla and its Affiliates retain all right, title and interest in and to the Services, its Confidential Information, its trademarks, copyright, and patents, and in each case any derivatives, modifications, enhancements or improvements thereto including without limitation: information or data regarding the interaction between the Services and Customer Data such as performance logs, metadata and bug fixes, technology, software, content, and materials, and any custom development work if applicable, as well as all intellectual property rights in and thereto. This Agreement does not grant Customer any intellectual property license or rights in or to the Services or any of its components, except to the limited extent that such rights are necessary for Mozilla's provision of the Services as contemplated herein. Mozilla and its Affiliates retain all rights not expressly granted herein. Customer receives no title to or ownership of any copy of the Services or the Services themselves. Furthermore, Customer receives no rights to the Services other than those specifically granted herein. In no event will the Services constitute "work for hire" as defined in applicable copyright law. For clarity, the Services do not include OSS which is subject to open source licensing as set out in the Documentation, provided that Mozilla and its Affiliates reserve all rights under the open source license and in their trademarks related to OSS as further outlined in the open source license(s) and applicable Documentation.

7.2. License by Customer to Mozilla. Customer and its Affiliates retain all rights, title, and interest in and to Customer Data, any NMOs owned and provided by Customer, and subject to the limited licenses granted herein Mozilla acquires no right, title or interest from Customer or its licensors under this Agreement thereto. Customer grants Mozilla and its Affiliates and applicable contractors a worldwide, non-exclusive, royalty-free, limited-term license to access, reproduce, modify, host, copy, use, transmit, manage, and display Customer Data and any Customer owned/provided NMO, each as appropriate for Mozilla to provide, operate, improve, and ensure proper operation of the Services and associated systems in accordance with this Agreement. Customer retains all rights to the Customer Data and any Customer owned/provided NMO not expressly granted herein. Mozilla receives no title to or ownership of any copy of the Customer Data or any Customer owned/provided NMO. If Customer chooses to use an NMO with a Service, Customer grants Mozilla permission to allow the NMO and its provider to access Customer Data and information about Customer's usage of the NMO as appropriate for the interoperation of that NMO with the Service.

7.3. Feedback. Customer or Users may provide Mozilla with suggestions, enhancement requests, recommendations, corrections, or other feedback relating to the operation of Mozilla's or its Affiliates' services ("Feedback"). Customer grants Mozilla a worldwide, irrevocable, perpetual, royalty-free license to use, disclose, modify, reproduce, license, incorporate into services, and distribute any Feedback, with the right to sublicense the foregoing rights, for or in any product, technology, service or documentation without any accounting or attribution to Customer. Any such Feedback is provided "AS IS" and without any express or implied warranty.

8. CONFIDENTIALITY.

8.1. Confidentiality Obligations. "Confidential Information" means any non-public, confidential, or proprietary information, including, without limitation, the terms of this Agreement, any work that may be the subject matter of copyright or patent protection, data, business plans, advertising and marketing, customer lists, pricing, or methodologies, formulae, algorithms, designs, models, drawings, computer programs, processing systems and techniques, or source codes that is disclosed by one party or its Affiliates (the "Discloser") to the other party or its Affiliates (the "Recipient") in connection with this Agreement, whether in tangible or intangible form, that is clearly identified as confidential or, that by its nature and the circumstances of disclosure, should be reasonably considered confidential. Recipient will hold and protect the Confidential Information of Discloser in confidence and with at least the same degree of care, but no less than reasonable care, with which it protects its own most sensitive confidential information. Recipient will use the Confidential Information of the other solely in connection with the performance of its obligations under this Agreement. Recipient will restrict disclosure of and access to Confidential Information to its employees, agents, and representatives ("Representatives") with a need-to-know such information in order to perform its obligations under this Agreement. Representatives will be under obligations of confidentiality at least as restrictive as those herein. Each party will require its Representatives, including any authorized subcontractors, to comply with the confidentiality obligations set forth herein and will be liable for any failure by its Representatives to so comply.

8.2. Exceptions to Confidentiality Obligations. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Confidential Information will not include information that (a) was in the public domain prior to the Effective Date or subsequently came into the public domain through no fault of Recipient; (b) was lawfully received by Recipient from a third party free of any obligation of confidence; (c) was already in the lawful possession of Recipient prior to receipt from Discloser; (d) is required to be disclosed by law, provided that Recipient seeking disclosure provides prior written notice of such disclosure to Discloser, if lawfully permissible, and takes all reasonable and lawful actions to avoid or minimize the extent of such disclosure; or (e) Recipient can show by documentary evidence was subsequently and independently developed by its own Representatives without use of or reference to the Confidential Information of Discloser.

8.3. Return of Confidential Information. Upon written request, Recipient will return or delete all Confidential Information of Discloser in Recipient's possession or control.

8.4. Residuals. A Representative may use Residuals (as defined herein) retained in their unaided memory for any purpose that does not violate the obligations of confidentiality set forth herein. The ability to use Residuals (a) is narrowly construed, (b) is intended only to alleviate the possibility of inadvertent breach of this Agreement as a result of routine, unaided memory retention, and (c) does not allow Recipient to use or disclose information known to Recipient to be Confidential Information that is subject to this Agreement. This does not grant to either party a license under the other party's copyrights, patents, or other intellectual property rights. "Residuals" means information that is retained, as general knowledge and experience, in a Representative's unaided memory (i.e. the Representative has not intentionally memorized the Confidential Information for the purpose of retaining and subsequently using or disclosing it) who received Confidential Information in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and no longer has access to it.

8.5. Confidentiality of Agreement. Neither party will disclose any terms of the Agreement or any attachment, exhibit, amendment, or SOW hereto, to anyone other than its attorneys, accountants, and other professional advisors except (a) as required by law, (b) pursuant to a mutually agreeable press release, or (c) in connection with a contemplated transfer of such party's business permitted under this Agreement (provided that any third party to whom the terms are to be disclosed is under an obligation of confidentiality consistent with this Agreement).

8.6. Equitable Relief. Each party agrees that a breach by the other party of the "Confidentiality" Section of this Agreement may cause the non-breaching party irreparable harm for which monetary damages would not be adequate compensation. In the event of such breach, the non-breaching party is entitled to seek equitable relief without posting a bond.

9. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

9.1. Mutual Representations and Warranties. Each party represents and warrants to the other that: (a) it has all rights, powers, registrations, permissions and authority to enter into this Agreement and perform all of its obligations hereunder; (b) when executed and delivered, this Agreement will constitute its legal, valid and binding obligation enforceable against it in accordance with its terms; and (c) it will comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations in the performance of its obligations hereunder.

9.2. DISCLAIMERS. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY PROVIDED HEREIN, NEITHER PARTY MAKES ANY WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED, STATUTORY OR OTHERWISE, AND EACH PARTY SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS ALL IMPLIED WARRANTIES, INCLUDING ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR NON-INFRINGEMENT, TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW.

10. MUTUAL INDEMNIFICATION.

10.1. Indemnification by Mozilla. Subject to the "Indemnification Procedure" Section below, Mozilla will defend Customer, its Affiliates, and Customer's and its Affiliates' officers, directors, and employees against any claim, demand, suit or proceeding made or brought against Customer by a third party arising out of or relating to any claim that the Services infringe, misappropriate, or violate any copyright, trademark, trade secret, or other intellectual property of any person or entity, and will indemnify Customer and its Affiliates and their respective officers, directors, and employees from reasonable attorney fees and court costs and damages finally awarded against Customer as a result of, or amounts paid by Customer under a settlement for, such a claim. Indemnified claims do not include, and Mozilla's obligations in the preceding sentence do not apply to any claim to the extent that it arises out of or relates to (a) Customer's collection, use, or provision of Customer Data (including its provision to Mozilla hereunder), (b) Customer's use of the Services or an NMO, in each case in an unlawful manner or in violation of the Agreement, Documentation, or SOW(s), (c) Customer's products or services including a combination thereof with the Service if such claim would not arise but for such combination, or (d) Mozilla's creation or modification of the Services in compliance with specifications furnished by Customer. Indemnity obligations will not apply with respect to any claims to the extent they arise from indemnified party's continuance of allegedly infringing activity after being informed of the infringement.

10.2. Indemnification by Customer. Subject to the "Indemnification Procedure" Section below, Customer will defend Mozilla, its Affiliates, and Mozilla's and its Affiliates' officers, directors, and employees against any claim, demand, suit or proceeding made or brought against Mozilla by a third party arising out of or relating to: (a) a claim that Customer's combination or configuration of the Services or an NMO infringes or misappropriates such third party's patent, copyright, trademark, or other intellectual property rights, (b) Customer's collection, use, or provision of Customer Data (including its provision to Mozilla and use together with the Services), or (c) Customer's use of the Services or an NMO, in each case in an unlawful manner or in violation of the Agreement, Documentation, or SOW(s), and will indemnify Mozilla and its Affiliates and their respective officers, directors, and employees from reasonable attorney fees and court costs and damages finally awarded against Mozilla as a result of, or amounts paid by Mozilla under a settlement for, such a claim. Indemnity obligations will not apply with respect to any claims to the extent they arise from indemnified party's continuance of allegedly infringing activity after being informed of the infringement.

10.3. Indemnification Procedure. The party seeking indemnity will provide prompt notice of any claim to the other party and reasonably cooperate with the other party's defense. The indemnifying party will have control of the defense of any indemnified claim, including appeals, negotiations, and any settlement or compromise thereof; provided: (i) if the indemnifying party fails to assume the defense on time to avoid prejudicing the defense, the indemnified party may defend the indemnified claim, without loss of rights pursuant to this "Mutual Indemnification" Section until the indemnifying party assumes the defense; and (ii) the indemnified party will have the right, not to be exercised unreasonably, to reject any settlement or compromise that requires that it to admit wrongdoing or liability or subjects them to any ongoing affirmative obligation.

10.4. Exclusive Remedy. This "Mutual Indemnification" Section states the indemnifying party's sole liability to, and the indemnified party's exclusive remedy against, the other party for any third-party claim described in this Section.

11. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

11.1. CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE TO THE OTHER PARTY FOR ANY INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, OR DAMAGES FOR LOST PROFITS OR LOSS OF BUSINESS, HOWEVER CAUSED AND UNDER ANY THEORY OF LIABILITY, WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE) OR OTHER THEORY OF LIABILITY, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER A PARTY WAS ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES AND NOTWITHSTANDING THE FAILURE OF ESSENTIAL PURPOSE OF ANY LIMITED REMEDY.

11.2. LIABILITY. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, EXCEPT FOR EACH PARTY'S OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE "CONFIDENTIALITY" SECTION AND "MUTUAL INDEMNIFICATION" SECTION, IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY'S TOTAL AGGREGATE LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT EXCEED THE AMOUNTS PAID OR PAYABLE BY CUSTOMER TO MOZILLA UNDER THIS AGREEMENT DURING THE TWELVE (12) MONTHS PRECEDING THE INCIDENT GIVING RISE TO LIABILITY, PROVIDED THAT, EITHER PARTY'S TOTAL AGGREGATE LIABILITY FOR ANY BREACHES OF ITS OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE "CONFIDENTIALITY" SECTION SHALL NOT EXCEED THREE TIMES THE AMOUNTS PAID OR PAYABLE BY CUSTOMER TO MOZILLA UNDER THIS AGREEMENT DURING THE TWELVE (12) MONTHS PRECEDING THE INCIDENT GIVING RISE TO LIABILITY. THE TOTAL AGGREGATE LIABILITY LIMITATIONS IN THIS SECTION APPLY EVEN IF THERE ARE MULTIPLE CLAIMS. THE PARTIES ACKNOWLEDGE THAT THIS SECTION HAS BEEN INCLUDED AS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT FOR THE PARTIES TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT AND THAT EACH PARTY WOULD NOT HAVE ENTERED INTO THIS AGREEMENT BUT FOR THE LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY AS SET FORTH HEREIN.

12. TERM AND TERMINATION.

12.1. Term. The term of this Agreement ("Term") will start on the Effective Date and will continue until all SOWs entered into hereunder have expired or been terminated.

12.2. Termination for Cause. Either party may terminate this Agreement (a) upon written notice if the other party materially breaches this Agreement and fails to correct the material breach within thirty (30) days of receiving written notice of material breach and demanding its cure, or (b) immediately upon delivery of written notice if the other party materially breaches the provisions of the "Confidentiality" Section, or becomes insolvent or subject to any proceedings under any bankruptcy or insolvency law, makes a general assignment for the benefit of creditors, suffers or permits an appointment of a receiver for its business or assets, is dissolved or liquidated or takes corporate action for such purpose, or suffers any similar action in consequence of debt.

12.3. Effect of Termination. Upon termination, all rights, licenses, and access granted hereunder shall terminate except that: (a) if Mozilla terminates for cause due to Customer's breach or insolvency or bankruptcy, Customer shall be required to pay for all Services purchased under all SOWs hereunder, (b) if Customer terminates for cause due to Mozilla's breach or insolvency or bankruptcy, Customer will only be required to pay for Services delivered up to the termination effective date, and (c) following termination (regardless of the party terminating and the party whose breach caused the termination), Customer will cease use of the Services and the parties will upon reasonable request delete or return any Confidential Information of the other party in their possession.

12.4. Survival. The following provisions will survive termination of this Agreement: "Customer Use of Services", "Fees and Payment", "Proprietary Rights", "Confidentiality", "Mutual Indemnification", "Limitation of Liability"; and any other provision of this Agreement that must survive to fulfill its essential purpose.

13. GENERAL PROVISIONS.

13.1. Governing Law; Dispute Resolution. This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California, without giving effect to its principles or rules of conflicts of laws. Any dispute, claim or controversy arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach, termination, enforcement, interpretation or validity thereof, including, without limitation, the determination of the scope or applicability of this agreement to arbitrate, will be determined by arbitration in San Francisco, California before one (1) arbitrator. The arbitration will be administered by JAMS pursuant to its Comprehensive Arbitration Rules and Procedures and in accordance with the Expedited Procedures in those Rules. The parties will maintain the confidential nature of the arbitration proceeding and award, including, without limitation, the arbitration hearing, except as may be necessary to prepare for or conduct the arbitration hearing on the merits, or except as may be necessary in connection with a court application for a preliminary remedy, a judicial challenge to an arbitration award or its enforcement, or unless otherwise required by law or judicial decision. Judgment on the arbitration award may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. This Section will not preclude parties from seeking provisional remedies in aid of arbitration from a court of appropriate jurisdiction.

13.2. Notices. Notice of breach, default, termination, claims for indemnification, or notice of other legal matters (“Legal Notices”) shall be provided in writing via personal delivery or recognized overnight express courier with records of receipt, with a copy via email to the applicable contact set out in the SOW, and a copy to legal-notices@mozilla.com for Legal Notices to Mozilla. All other notices shall be provided via email as set out in the SOW or as otherwise provided. Notices sent via email are deemed received upon transmission provided no error or bounce message is received. Notices sent via personal delivery are deemed received upon delivery and notices sent via overnight courier are deemed received one day after being sent provided they are successfully delivered.

13.3. Independent Contractors. The status of the parties to this Agreement is that of independent contractors. Neither party has authority to waive any rights, assume or create any obligation, or make representations of any kind in the name of, or on behalf of, the other party or state that it has the authority to do so. Neither party intends to establish a partnership, joint venture, agency, employment, or other similar relationship. Each party is solely responsible for the management and supervision of its own employees.

13.4. Third-Party Beneficiaries. There are no third-party beneficiaries under this Agreement.

13.5. Future Functionality. Customer agrees that its purchases are not contingent on the delivery of any future functionality or features, or dependent on any oral or written public comments made by Mozilla regarding future functionality or features.

13.6. Publicity and Customer List. Except that Customer authorizes Mozilla to use Customer’s name and, subject to any trademark usage guidelines provided by Customer, its primary logo on Mozilla’s public customer list, neither party will make any public statement, press release, presentations, or other announcements relating to the existence of this Agreement or the terms herein, nor shall either party use the other party’s name, trademark, or logo, without the other party’s prior written consent (including by agreement in a SOW or via email) unless expressly permitted herein.

13.7. Technology Export. Customer will not: (a) permit any person to access or use the Services in violation of any U.S. law or regulation, or (b) export any software provided by Mozilla or otherwise remove it from the United States except in compliance with all applicable U.S. laws and regulations. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Customer will not permit any third party to access or use the Services in, or export such software to, a country or region subject to a United States embargo.

13.8. Anti-Corruption. Neither party has received or been offered any illegal or improper bribe, kickback, payment, gift, or thing of value from an employee or agent of the other party in connection with this Agreement. Reasonable gifts and entertainment provided in the ordinary course of business do not violate the above restriction.

13.9. Assignment and Binding Effect. This Agreement is binding upon the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Neither party may assign or otherwise transfer this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party and any attempt to so assign or transfer this Agreement without such consent will be void and of no effect; provided, however, that each party may, upon notice to the non-assigning party, assign this Agreement to an Affiliate or successor, whether by way of merger, sale of all or substantially all of its assets or otherwise, provided such assignee is not a direct competitor of the non-assigning party.

13.10. Force Majeure. Neither party will be liable for any delay or failure to perform its obligations hereunder (except Customer’s payment obligations) due to a force majeure event, including, without limitation, strikes, shortages, riots, insurrection, fires, flood, storm, explosions, acts of God, war, civil unrest, governmental action, labor conditions, earthquakes, changes in data protection laws, or any other cause. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties hereby agree that to the extent either party is unable to comply with its obligations under this Agreement as a result of the occurrence and continuance of an event of force majeure for a period in excess of sixty (60) days, this Agreement may be terminated by written notice of either party.

13.11. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement (or part of any provision) is found by any court or other authority of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, the provision will apply with the minimum modification necessary to make it legal, valid and enforceable or the parties will negotiate in good faith to amend such provision such that, as amended, it is legal, valid and enforceable, and, to the greatest extent possible, achieves the parties’ original intention; and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of this Agreement will not be affected.

13.12. Waiver. Failure to insist upon strict compliance with any terms, covenants or conditions of this Agreement will not be deemed a waiver of that or any other term, covenant or condition of this Agreement.

13.13. Entire Agreement; Amendment, Order of Precedence. This Agreement and any amendments hereto may be executed in one or more counterparts and, together with any exhibits, attachments, or SOWs entered into hereunder, constitutes the entire agreement and understanding of the parties with respect to its subject matter and supersedes all oral communications and prior writings with respect thereto. This Agreement (including its Exhibits), in whole or part, may be changed, modified, waived, amended or supplemented only in writing as mutually agreed between the parties. The parties agree that any term or condition stated in a Customer purchase order or in any other Customer order documentation (excluding Mozilla’s ordering documentation) is void. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency among the following documents, the order of precedence shall be: (1) the applicable SOW, (2) this Agreement, and (3) the Documentation. Titles and headings of Sections of this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not affect the construction of any provision of this Agreement.
